

Let us show you what real performance is.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Jeffrey Williams

770-310-0801

Jeffrey.williams@ats.com

Silver Spring, MD — November 2, 2016 — A&T Systems, an Army IMCS III prime contractor, received an award to provide telecommunications, IT, and visual information services for the Army War College at Carlisle Barracks, PA. This 5-year award begins on December 9, 2016, and provides the following services:

- Administrative Telephone Services: Automated Directory Assistance; inside plant switching complex; customer services (telephone); outside plant (cable)
- IT Services: LAN administration and server and system administration and maintenance (classified and unclassified), service desk, software installation, hardware and software troubleshooting, VoIP/VoSIP (classified and unclassified), and web site administration
- Video Teleconferencing Support: Establish/schedule VTCs (classified and unclassified)
- Information Assurance Services: Ensure that Carlisle Barracks staff receives appropriate training in a timely manner and earns required security certifications
- Telephone Switch Tier II/III Support: Nortel main switch and remote switching nodes and Avaya VoIP
- Visual Information Systems: Production control; digital photographic services; design and illustration, desktop publishing; multimedia design for CD-ROM, DVD, and web; audio editing/recording, restoration and archiving; long-distance learning; media conversion; event support; closed circuit TV broadcasting; TV production; reproductions; and storage
- Land Mobile Radio Network: Infrastructure O&M of analog and digital trunked radio communications systems—network and control system management and towers

About A&T Systems

A&T Systems, Inc., which has been providing services to the federal and state government agencies for 32 years, has deep expertise in telecommunications, IT, and visual-information solutions for large enterprise projects. It has provided such services for more than a dozen Federal Departments and more than two dozen agencies.

For more information, visit www.ats.com

###