

Let us show you what real performance is.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Jeffrey Williams

770-310-0801

Jeffrey.williams@ats.com

Silver Spring, MD — February 5, 2019 — A&T Systems, an Army IMCS III prime contractor, received an award to provide telecommunications, IT, and information services for Fort Bragg at Fayetteville, NC. This 3-year award began on January 28, 2019, and provides the following services:

- Administrative Telephone Services: Automated Directory Assistance; inside plant switching complex; customer services (telephone); outside plant (cable)
- IT Services: LAN administration and server and system administration and maintenance (classified and unclassified); service desk; desktop support; software installation; hardware and software troubleshooting; VoIP/VoSIP (classified and unclassified); web site administration; unified communications support; and cybersecurity policy management, compliance, and oversight
- Information Assurance Services: Ensure that Fort Bragg staff receives appropriate training in a timely manner and earns required security certifications
- Telephone Switch Tier II/III Support: Cisco main switch and remote switching nodes and Avaya VoIP
- Audio-Video Support: Support for audio-visual hardware, video wall system, and Blu-Ray players, video teleconference, and cable TV

About A&T Systems

A&T Systems, Inc., which has been providing services to the federal and state government agencies for 34 years, has deep expertise in telecommunications, IT, cloud, and -information solutions for large enterprise projects. It has provided such services for more than a dozen Federal Departments and more than two dozen agencies.

For more information, visit www.ats.com

###